A favour

...

...

Pretty bloody, I see...

Ear piercing wound caused by blunt jewellery, I presume?

You tried to force the earring in, right?

You're one remarkable detective...

I thought the blood would have dried up by now.

You found it, huh...?

Nothing gets by you...

Doctors and I don't exactly mix...

Is it that bad?

We have to go to the doctor...

Latest medical equipment... Disinfectant...

Well... Yes, I think we have that.

C3L

Well, maybe five...

The consultation room is just three steps from here.

Sorry to say...

Sit down on this bed.

So, you're a doctor, then?

Another of my secrets is revealed.

It's not exactly bad... But still, a wound is a wound.

It almost looks like an earring itself, a little red flower...

Hmmm...

Let me do it myself.

This may sting a tad...

Just...
Please take better care of your ears.

If not for yourself, then do it for me.

Yes,
Doctor, yes...
sir...

I don't really understand the desire to keep piercing your ears.

Frankly...

All the better to hear you with!

May I come again if I get hurt?

By the way, I'm quite fond of that cabinet of yours...

No need for me to thank you, then!

Oh, what a shame!

Sorry, didn't catch that. My ears mustn't have enough holes...
